

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Matthew 18:15-20

1. What should you do first if a follower sins against you?

- A. ☐ Tell everyone you know.
- B. ☐ Go and point out what was wrong in private.
- C. ☐ Ignore them completely.
- D. ☐ Report them to the teacher immediately.

5. If the follower refuses to listen to the others you brought, whom should you report the matter to?

- A. ☐ The police.
- B. ☐ Your friends.
- C. ☐ The church.
- D. ☐ No one else.

2. What is the goal if that person listens to you?

- A. ☐ To get them in trouble.
- B. ☐ To show everyone you were right.
- C. ☐ To have won back a follower.
- D. ☐ To win an argument.

6. How must anyone who refuses to listen to the church be treated?

- A. ☐ Like an unbeliever or a tax collector.
- B. ☐ Like a best friend.
- C. ☐ With constant arguing.
- D. ☐ Give them special gifts.

3. If the person refuses to listen, who should you take along with you?

- A. ☐ One or two others.
- B. ☐ A very large crowd.
- C. ☐ No one else, keep trying alone.
- D. ☐ The whole church.

7. What does 'won back a follower' mean in this context?

- A. ☐ You helped restore a broken relationship and kept a fellow believer.
- B. ☐ You defeated them in a game.
- C. ☐ You convinced them to give you money.
- D. ☐ You got them to agree with everything you say.

4. How many witnesses are needed to prove every complaint true?

- A. ☐ Only one witness.
- B. ☐ Two or more witnesses.
- C. ☐ At least five people.
- D. ☐ No witnesses are needed.

8. Why should we try to resolve conflict directly and sometimes with others first?

- A. ☐ To embarrass the person.
- B. ☐ To follow Jesus' teachings on making peace and resolving disputes with care.
- C. ☐ Because it's funny to involve more people.
- D. ☐ So we don't have to talk to anyone.